DISCOVER YOUR FUTURE

The U.S. Chamber of Commerce is the world's largest business organization representing the interests of more than 3 million businesses of all sizes, sectors, and regions. Our members range from mom-and-pop shops and local chambers to leading industry associations and large corporations. They all share one thing—they count on the Chamber to be their voice in Washington, D.C. In 2016, the Chamber will focus its resources and expertise to advance a Jobs, Growth, and Opportunity agenda, a series of policy priorities that will help revitalize the American economy, create jobs, spur growth, and lift incomes.

A MESSAGE FROM TOM DONAHUE, PRESIDENT OF US CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

One of the issues that people should focus on is Exploring—because we're training young people in specific industries we're defining for them what they need to do in school to end up with good jobs, and we're bring together people that need workers and people that are going to be workers.
